The Political Situation There Has Become Very Amusing.

Victim of the Animal Cannot Live-Coming Here to Raise a Dredge.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., July 15 .- The local political muddle is becoming amusing. Toay the two new police commissioners, Meesrs, Loyall and Shultice, and the new police justice, Mr. Loyall, qualified for the second time for their positions before a justice of the peace. The officers have been elected by the Councils three separate times, first at a called meeting, then at a joint session, and finally, to make matters secure, in separate session.

Date Not Fixed.

As to the date for the National Committee meeting, Mr. Sheehan said to-day that it remains to be fixed. The committee can be called together on a week's notice, and probably will meet before the 1st of August, but several more conferences will doubtless intervene.

There was a rumor in Kingston tonight, circulating with a good deal of insistence, that Judge Parker's personal campaign headquarters would be established in Kingston, and that he would meet visiting delegations there, rather than at Rosemount. Those who are in a position to know do not atach great value to this rumor.

Rosemount has become a center of eager interest to passengers on all the passing boats. Nearly all of them blow as alute as they pass, and in the day-time little Alton Parker Hall, Judge Parker's grandson, answers the salute with a blg American flag, brought by Mr. Sheehan from the St. Louis convention, where it was waved in honor of the judge's nominguion. In the evening some one, usually Secretary McCausland, answers the salute with a rocket or Rounan candle. The bugler on the Mary Powell blows "taps" as the boat leaves Esopus landing, which is just in front of Rosemount.

NEW YORK PARADE.

Democrats Steal March on Republicans and Get Only Permit. Republican business men of New York who have taken an active part in arranging for the "sound money" parades on the Saturday preceding election in the last two national campaigns were surprised yesterday to learn that Pollee Commissioner McAdoo had already granted a permit to a Democratic Club for such a parade this year over the route usually taken by the Republican hosts, and that a permit had been denied to the Republicans.

Damage Suit.

After a session last until late into the evening in the case of Jennie 8. Jones, the little daughter of Felix M. Jones, against the Passenger and Power Company, in the Circuit Court of Henrico, the jury rendered a verdict of 8,000 for the plaintiff. The case grew out of an accident which cost the child-plaintiff her left leg. This occurred at Main and Rowland Streets a little over a year ago.

The little girl was in the court-room during the entire proceedings, and when on the stand gave her evidence in a clear and concise manner. H. R. Pollard represented the plaintiff, and Sands & Sands the defendant company. It was close on 0 o clock when the jury returned with the verdict.

BALL GAMES TO-DAY.

Interesting Contests Looked for at Broad Street Park.

The Twin City League games at Broad Street Park this afternoon promises to be the most interesting of the season. The Brownies, the Richmonds and the Barton Heights are closely bunched for first place, and Swansborn is aching to get in the bunch. The first game will be between Swansbore and the Brownies, and the former is feeling confident of taking laurels from the leaders. The club has been strengthened considerably. Albert Bosher will play at second for Swansbore.

The second game will be for "blood." Bar-in Heights wants to get second place, and ton Heights wants to get second places, air Richmond wants it.

The standing of the cluba-now is: Brownies, 818; Richmonds, .667; Barton Heights, .667; Swansbore, .364.

The first, game begins at 2:30, the second game immediately thereafter.

American Barbers in London.

American Barbers in London.

In an East End police court the other day a curious case of asault was heard. A youngster, it appears, was sent by his father to have his hair cut. The barber, according to the father, ran a pair of clippers all over the boy's head except in front, where he left an enormous tringe; to mark his displeasure the father gave the barber a sound thrashing it is, however, not only in the East End that barbers show a great ignorance of their trade. In New York or Paris it is the easiest thing possible for a man to have his hair cut properly. In London it is hardly too much to say that there are only half a dozen places where a barber knows his business. The average barber has only one method of cutting hair, which he invariably carries out, irrespective altogether of the wishes of his customers.

It can hardly be doubted, however, that down on the bluegrass hills of Loudoun and Fauquier and Culpeper there are hundreds, probably thousands of fat cattle which may be had for this market by the independent dealers. It is said that the cattle already procured in Virginia have been got at a normal figure, but if the strike continues the price will advance and the cattle raisers will get the advantage if they care to take it.

Only a few intimate friends and the members of the family witnessed the nuptial rites, which were impressively pronounced by the Rt. mate friends and the members of the family witnessed the nuptial rites, which were impressively pronounced by the Rt. Rev. Theedere Bratton, D. D., hishop of Mississippi. The ceremony was performed in the cozy partor of the suburban home, which had been artistically decorated for the occasion with exquisite flowers and rare evergreens. The brids entered on the arm of her brother, Dr. E. P. Odeneal, and they were met beneath the floral bower by the groom and his best man, Mr. N. K. Burger. The solemn marriage rites of the Episcopal Church were eloquently spoken by the distinguished young divine, and the young couple were declared one for life. The bride was attractively gowned in white chiffon, over white taffeta, and wore an illusion vell caught up with a pearl crescent and orange blossoms. Her only attendant was her little nicco, Miss Mary Shingleur, who acted as flower girl.
